(LVIIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2911.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1802.

PETERSBURG, (Ruſſia) July 13.

ACCORDING to an agreement made with the king of Pruſſia our court is to allow for the ſupport of Lewis XVIII. the annual ſum of 75,000 rubles.

FRANKFORT, July 27.

The general peace, by renewing the trade of the commercial nations with their colonies, likewiſe cheers the workhouſes in Germany. The Batavian major of Goldenberg is now travelling through Germany, with orders to bring away all the inhabitants of the workhouſes in Germany for Batavia and the other Dutch colonies. At Darmſtadt he got 27, whom he ſent along the Rhine to Holland.

According to the expreſs propoſals from France, the German conſtitution will be warranted by France, Auſtria, Pruſſia and Ruſſia. The remaining free cities of the empire, although they form a college, have no vote in making war or peace.

COPENHAGEN, Auguſt 24.

The China ſhip of the Aſiatic company, the Chriſtienham, arrived on Tueſday, which gave the more joy to the proprietors, as it was not expected before ſpring. The cargo conſiſts principally of tea. It has no nankeens on board. Thirty American ſhips, which were there before its arrival, having bought up ſuch large quantities of nankeens, that the price was greatly advanced.

We ſhall not be uneaſy about the increaſe of price in brown ſugars; that will bring on, without fail, the increaſe of refined ſugars in France. Then the augmentation of duties will diſappear, and benefit will be found again in importing refined ſugars from foreign countries.

BOURDEAUX, September 5.

We learn by letters from Bayonne, the arrival of a corvette coming from Breſt, having on board the wife of Touſſaint Louverture, two of her children, one of her neices, and ſome ſervants; they went on ſhore the 2d of September, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. Mrs. Touſſaint was received on the wharf by the mayor of Bayonne, the commander of the troops, with a detachment of grenadiers, and conducted to the hotel of Providence. They are now preparing apartments for her in one of the caſtles. A centinel has been placed at the door of the hotel.

PARIS, Auguſt 25.

Touſſaint Louverture has arrived at Paris; he was brought here in a poſt chaiſe, eſcorted by a numerous detachment of dragoons; he is in the temple.

September 1.

Buſineſs has been pretty briſk this week—brown ſugars have riſen more than 8 per cent. At their actual price, they can be drawn from foreign countries only with loſs; coffee cheap; as the time of uſing more of it draws near, it is likely that it will riſe.

Cotton keeps on the ſame price—Heavy black pepper ſcarce.

At laſt ſugars of our French refiners begin to be in conſumption in the capital; for a long time foreign ſugars were conſumed, theſe truly begin to be ſcarce; and unleſs they be ſmuggled, they cannot be introduced without a loſs.

LONDON, Auguſt 28.

A Hamburg mail arrived this day, brings the following articles of intelligence:—Six ſhips of the line have ſailed from Toulon to proceed againſt Algiers, the envoy who is appointed to go with them is citizen Hullin, who before the revolution was a private in the French guards, and was particularly active in ſtorming the Baſtile. It is ſaid that the letter to our government addreſſed to the dey, is conceived in very ſtrong terms; and that, entirely to root out that neſt of pirates, we ſhall probably take poſſeſſion of Algiers.

It is confirmed by the Jamaica papers, that a difference has taken place between the governor of that iſland and the houſe of aſſembly, on the ſubject of the demand by government for the iſland to undertake the payment of 5000 troops for its defence.—The houſe of aſſembly have pointedly reſiſted the principle, as contrary to their rights, and they claim protection as their due, equally with every other part of the Britiſh empire. They likewiſe decline finding ſupplies for the maintenance of a corps of black artificers, thought neceſſary by the governor for the execution of certain work reſolved upon.

The heat in the neighbourhood of Francfort at the commencement of the preſent month, was ſo intenſe, that the leaves of the vine and other trees, fell in the ſame manner as at the end of autumn.

On the 30th, the firſt conſul went to the Francaiſe to ſee Andromaque. Mr. Fox, who has been ſome days in Paris, was preſent, and occupied a box facing that of the firſt conſul.

The rapid increaſe of cotton manufactories in the north of England has lately been almoſt incredible. Lancaſhire is, and perhaps will continue to be the grand centre; but one manufactory of this article has, within the laſt four or five years, been gaining much ground in Cheſhire; Staffordſhire and Weſtmoreland; and ſo conſiderable has its progreſs been in Yorkſhire, that the labouring poor in the weſtern parts of this riding, are at preſent principally employed in it. In the neighbourhood of Halifax, Haddersfield, Bradford, and even Dewſbury, ſeveral large manufactories have lately been erected, and we are informed the enterpriſing proprietors of theſe works have the moſt flattering proſpect of ſucceſs.

We are happy to find that the refractory ſhipwrights have ſubmitted, are again employed, and work together with the men from the king's dock yards. The caulkers likewiſe have applied for permiſſion to work, ſo that thoſe unpleaſant diſputes are likely to be ſoon ſettled.

It is ſtated in a French newſpaper, that a man, at Noiſt, devoured in the preſence of ſeveral perſons, an entire full grown ſheep, together with its wool!!!

It was yeſterday reported that the attorney-general has been inſtructed to proſecute the author, publiſher and printers of a French journal publiſhed in London every ten days, entitled L'Ambigu, which is ſuppoſed to be conducted by Mr. Peltier, and of which four numbers have already made their appearance. This journal contains a ſeries of ſquibs, epigrams, and double entendres on the public proceedings in France. We truſt that our own government has, at the ſame time, deſired a proſecution againſt the author of the libel in the Moniteur, aſſerting that our king would have rewarded the aſſaſſin of Buonaparte with the order of the garter. The proſecution of the Ambigu is no doubt intended as a hint from our government to the other journaliſts, who thence muſt learn what they have to expect, ſhould they, in future, ſpeak too freely of the chief conſul.

Auguſt 31.

This day arrived Paris papers, to the 29th inſtant. The French funds continue to decline. On the 27th the five per cent. were at 50, 80.

An article from Genoa, ſpeaks of a treaty about to be entered into between that ſtate and the French republic, by which the former is to renounce the iſlands of Corſica and Capraja, and to receive in exchange Oneille and its dependencies. The approaching departure of gen. Andreoſſi from Paris to London is announced to take place within 15 days from the 21ſt. inſtant.

A ſenatus conſulta is, it is ſtated, about to be iſſued, for the purpoſe of regulating the order of diſtribution of poſſeſſions in St. Domingo, in ſuch a manner as to conciliate the rights and intereſt of proprietors and the negroes.

The Hamburg mail which arrived on Saturday, mentions on the authority of a letter from Vienna, that the Imperial court continues to refuſe its aſſent to the ſcheme of indemnities which has been ſo "diſintereſtedly" arraigned by France, Ruſſia and Pruſſia.

An article from Augſburg of the 19th inſtant, ſtates that a body of Bavarian troops, on their march to take poſſeſſion of that part of Paſſua granted as an indemnity to the elector Palatine, were prevented from paſſing by a corps of Auſtrians, ſtationed for that purpoſe by the cabinet of Vienna, on the extreme frontier of the Ina Viertel. The declaration of the firſt conſul and the emperor Alexander, will, no doubt, remove all oppoſition; though it appears but reaſonable, that the propoſed plan of indemnities ſhould not be carried into effect until ſanctioned by the deciſion of the Imperial diet.

Laſt night a Dutch mail arrived, and a ſecond this morning. Accounts from the Hague ſtate, that a French army is to be aſſembled on the Rhine for the oſtenſible purpoſe of military parade when the chief conſul ſhall viſit Belgium, but more probable for the more important object of influencing and accelerating the deliberations of the diet of Ratiſbon.

It is poſitively ſtated in a private letter from Liſbon, that the abrupt departure of gen. Laſnes, was occaſioned by ſome very extraordinary attention manifeſted to Madame Laſnes by an illuſtrious perſonage, belonging to that court.

A company of merchants has lately been formed at Vienna, for the purpoſe of ſending the wines of Hungary to London. The capital at the firſt ſubſcription amounted to 500,000 florins.

The harveſt in Belgium is juſt finiſhed and is the richeſt ever remembered in that country.

Yeſterday the Eaſt-India company's March ſale, 1803, finiſhed, when the China raw ſilk roſe 7 per cent. and the Bengal raw ſilk about 20 per cent.

Laſt Tueſday the weekly payment into the exciſe office amounted to the enormous ſum of 225,000l. being a quarter of a million of money.

The extra duty in Ruſſia on tar has been reduced from 69 cop. per tun to 13; making the whole export duties no more than 23 cop. per tun. At Archangel, &c. the price of that article in conſequence advanced to 290 cop. per tun. The ſtock on hand, both of the laſt year and preſent ſummer, is very large, ſo that a reduction is expected, the more eſpecially as the demand from England is greatly reduced.

On Saturday Thomas Cooper, late mate of the brig Adventure, ſunk off Brighton, underwent an examination before the lord mayor, being charged as a perſon who had ſunk and deſtroyed that veſſel on the 7th inſt. Hand-bills had been lately ſent from the manſion-houſe to the coaſt of Suffolk, the place of this man's nativity, and where he was ſuppoſed to be concealed, offering a reward of 100l. for his apprehenſion; and theſe bills being ſeen by the priſoner's friends, they informed the magiſtrates in the country that they would deliver him up on condition of his being admitted as king's evidence againſt the captain, and others belonging to the veſſel. He was accordingly brought to town on Saturday, by officers from Saxmundham, in Suffolk. When brought before the lord mayor he made a full confeſſion of this nefarious tranſaction. He ſaid he was the perſon who had bored holes in the brig with an augur, which he ſaid he did by the direction of perſons whoſe names we ſhall not mention. He alſo ſwore that the ſhip had been plundered previous to this tranſaction; and that every thing had been done with a deſign to defraud the underwriters. Two other perſons were then examined; one of them was a waterman and lighterman, who had been employed to carry goods to the veſſel when taking in her lading in London. He ſwore that, by particular deſire of perſons whom we ſhall not name, he depoſited in a certain wharf ten tuns of bale goods, which ſhould have been and were underſtood to be put on board the brig as a part of her cargo. The other witneſs had been on board the brig for the purpoſe of being a ſupercargo; but left her in the Downs in conſequence of not having a proper ſettlement with the owners. He ſwore the brig was, when he left her, in very good condition, fit to weather the Bay of Biſcay, and perform her intended voyage. The whole of the crew of this brig, together with the owners, are now in cuſtody, and will ſhortly be all brought together for a final examination.

The perforated planks of the Adventure have been ſeparated from the veſſel and brought to London.

BERMUDA, October 2.

Several Engliſh Weſt-India iſlands have ſhut their ports againſt the Americans, owing to their having ſuch a number of their veſſels and ſeamen unemployed. There are alſo here a great number of veſſels unemployed, as well as ſeamen—and ſome meaſures muſt be taken to put a ſtop to the preſent trade between theſe iſlands and America, or ſome new regulations take place, otherwiſe every dollar will vaniſh.

The whale fiſhery has been ſo productive this year, that a greater number of ſhips than ever was known are expected to be fitted out the next ſeaſon, both for the South ſea and Greenland, from England.

The number of the inhabitants in Greenland have increaſed amazingly within theſe few years, owing, in a great meaſure, to the attention paid to them by government, in giving them ſuch neceſſaries as they are in need of, as well as temporary habitations. They are become very induſtrious, ſhooting deer, bears, &c. and killing whales.

If the ſame bounty to the South ſea whale fiſhermen is held out here now as was the caſe before the war, there can be no doubt but that new adventurers would ſoon be found. Encouragement ſhould alſo be given to the fiſhery here, as it would keep an aſtoniſhing ſum in theſe iſlands. The above deſerves ſerious conſideration, and we truſt will be attended to, for without ſome means is ſoon deviſed to employ our ſeamen, every dollar will be drained from us.

NEW-YORK, October 19.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in St. Mary's, to his friend in Savanna, dated 14th September.

"I returned yeſterday from Eaſt-Florida, where I got official information that a treaty has taken place in Auguſt laſt, between the Spaniſh government and the Creek Indians, viz. thoſe that the renegade Bowles had influence over.

"They have given up all the white priſoners and negroes that had been taken. Bowles has choſen out with his associates privately; his companions were two fellows who fled from justice in the states; William Harris, a tall fellow with a piece bit off his nose, well known in that state as a horse thief; the other, William M'Girth, a likely young man, who made his escape from near Augusta for the above offence.

"A Nassau, (New-Providence) pirate was taken at the Appalachee inlet, with supplies for Bowles on board: the pirate's name is Johnston, son of the notorious George Johnston: there are a number of American captains who knew him to their sorrow."

We are informed that advices from the Havanna, so late as the 9th of the last month, state, on unquestionable authority, that the count de Mupoz (commonly called count Jaruco from the family title) had obtained from the court of Spain, whither he had recently gone from the Havanna, the privilege of introducing into that port one hundred and forty thousand barrels of flour. This exclusive privilege, though it must necessarily be supplied from the United States, is a finishing blow to our regular commercial intercourse with the Havanna. The amount of the privilege extends to, at least, to two and an half years supply of that article.

The same advices make no mention of the partial admission of our vessels with stock and lumber, as recently reported by an arrival at eastward.

October 20.

Captain Marener, to whom we are indebted for the following proclamation, informs us, that the new laws relative to the duties payable in the island of Martinique, limit the port charges at 21 dollars, and a duty of 2 per cent. on all sales, and 7 per cent. on the purchase of colonial produce. A number of American vessels there with beef and pork, were not permitted to land their cargoes when capt. M. sailed. It was not known how long this prohibition would continue; but the government had ordered an inquiry of the quantities of every species of provisions that would be wanted, and, from the scarcity, it was expected that Americans would soon be permitted to dispose of their cargoes.

On his passage to New-York, captain M. spoke the schooner Edward, Swain, of Baltimore, which sailed some time after the Sally, and was informed that St. Pierre's had been proclaimed the only port of entry.

PROCLAMATION

Of admiral Villaret Joyeuse, captain-general of Martinique and St. Lucia.

FRENCHMEN, war and dissentions have separated you from the mother country—peace restores you again to her bosom.

The French government maintains the ancient laws made for the happiness of the colonies, protects the religion of your fathers; guarantees the integrity of property, and preserves slavery; which made a part of ancient colonial possession. After having conquered and given peace to the world, it wishes the happiness and tranquillity of nations, by allaying hatred, and binding up the wounds which parties have made. After having combated armies, it supports altars, and re-establishes christianity.

Wretched shall those be who shall dare to disturb the social order established in the colonies; who shall cherish suspicions with regard to the intentions of the mother country. The sword of justice will soon be unsheathed to punish, but far be it from our wish to find any one culpable. Our first care shall be to prevent the commission of such crimes, by the most watchful vigilance; and our strongest solicitude shall be to add to the happiness of the colony, by justice and an equitable administration. Your sons long to be united again to Frenchmen: ten years of glory have effaced the misfortunes of the revolution. The 18th Brumaire, and the treaty of Amiens, have fixed the destiny and the grandeur of France. The hero who governs—who makes the happiness of the colonies his, by making commerce to revive and flourish: astonished posterity is yet not decided concerning him; but without doubt will make him the greatest of men.

The captain-general,

VILLARET JOYEUSE.

[By an arrette of Buonaparte, dated the 8th Floreal, 10th year, the following names of places in Martinique, St. Lucia and Tobago, are ordered to be changed.

The fort called Royal, at Martinique, shall take the name of Fort de France.

Bourbon, the name of Fort Desaix.

The port and city of St. Lucia, formerly De Castries, the name of De Carenage.

The port and city formerly Port Lewis, in the island of Tobago, to be called Scarborough.]

October 21.

In a Lisbon paper of the 10th of September, received at this office, by the Eliza, it is mentioned that a frigate belonging to the emperor of Morocco arrived at Lisbon, on the 6th September, from Larache, in 12 days passage.

Extract of a letter from a respectable merchant in Lisbon to his correspondent in this city, dated September 10.

"The sudden departure of the French minister, which we mentioned to you in our last, has hitherto been productive of no bad consequences whatever. It is said that general Lecourbe is to supply his place.

"After the declaration of war against France by Algiers, it has been generally supposed that something effectual would have been done on the part of the former to curb the insolence of the Barbary powers generally, and to reduce their system of warfare to something more like that established in Europe. It now appears that this will not be the case; France having made peace with Algiers for herself alone, and nearly upon the old footing.

"Your frigates continue to cruise and convoy in the Mediterranean; which, however, has not prevented the Tripolitans from picking up two ships laden with West-India produce, which they have conducted to Messina."

PHILADELPHIA, October 18.

On Saturday last arrived the ship Philadelphia, Rasser, 61 days from Leghorn and 41 from Gibraltar. By a gentleman passenger in her, we learn, that a French fleet with 6000 troops had sailed from Toulon, given out, for Algiers; but it was said instead of going to Algiers they were gone up the Mediterranean, and it was conjectured were bound to Constantinople or some other part of the Turkish Dominions—of this or some other matter hostile to their interest, it is evident the British are apprehensive, as an order was received at Gibraltar to stop all the British men of war, formerly ordered home, which was put in execution, as they came down the Mediterranean and arrived there. There also seemed to be some disagreement respecting the evacuation of Malta, as, it was said, none of the stipulations agreed to by the treaty of peace, were complied with by the British.

October 21.

INTERESTING.

[The following interesting extract has been handed to us by a commercial gentleman of the first respectability.—We thank him for his friendly politeness:]

Extract of a letter from a respectable mercantile house in Bourdeaux, dated Sept. 6, to their correspondents in this city.

"France will not make a commercial treaty with England: the latter takes it in dudgeon, and appearances look lowering—that is to say, something like a rupture."

October 23.

We hear the rev. Mr. Thomas Hall, chaplain of the British factory at Leghorn, (a native of Pennsylvania) has lately sent to the Historical Society of Boston, a present of two Etrusian stone coffins supposed to be at least 3000 years old, of a most curious structure. One of them has various figures on it in the true Grecian style in cassoreleivo, representing some interesting events, as yet undiscovered by the antiquarians.

DOVER, (Del.) October 12.

This day about 11 o'clock, A. M. on the cry of "fire," it was discovered that the roof of the state-house, in this town, was on a light blaze. On the arrival of the citizens, it appeared that the roof immediately over the octagon, in a S. E. direction, was entirely burned through; and that the lead composing the gutters, was rapidly melting away by the heat of the fire. Every exertion of the citizens, and others, was made to save this handsome and useful fabric from the devouring element; and we are happy to add, that under Providence, these exertions were crowned with success. After about an hour of activity and anxious labour, every particle of fire was completely extinguished. During this dreadful scene, we beheld the ladies of the town actively employed, in securing the state and county records; and encouraging others, to imitate their example. To the individual risque, and exertions of Messrs. John Wild, Bethuel Watson, Richard Corker and Thomas Allee, we cannot do sufficient justice, and to the useful activity of the blacks who had nothing at stake, adequate credit cannot be ascribed.

There is every reason to believe, that the accident occurred, from the communication of a spark from an adjoining chimney.

WASHINGTON, October 22.

The Italian republic has adopted a national flag, which is described below, and which has been officially announced to the government of the United States, by the charge des affaires of the French republic, in consequence of instructions received from his government.

Flag of the Italian republic.

A pattern of the flag of the Italian republic has been transmitted by the French government to the maritime prefects. It consists of a paralellogram of a red ground, of which one side is double the length of the others. In this paralellogram is contained a lozenge of a white ground, and within the lozenge a paralellogram of a green ground. The pendant is divided into four compartments. The first next the acorn is a trapezium of a red ground, containing a white isosceles triangle, with the base touching the second compartment, which is a green ground with a white border above and below. The third consists of transverse stripes, the extremes of which are red, and the intermediate ones white. The fourth is entirely red.

BALTIMORE, October 23.

USEFUL DISCOVERIES.

Mr. Forsyth, a lawyer in Scotland, has lately discovered a cheap and easy process for converting potatoes, carrots, parsnips, turnips, and all similar roots, into meal, which can be transported and preserved as well as the meal of grain. The flour of carrots and parsnips is particularly agreeable to the taste and smell. The same gentleman has discovered a more cheap and easy mode of salting fish than is now practised; possessing this advantage, that the quality of the salt and skill of the workmen are of less importance.

HAY.

The heating of the hay, though it is stacked while too green, may be easily prevented by the following simple method, now practised by the most respectable farmers in England: They stuff a sack as hard as they can with hay, and tie the top tight with a cord; they then make the rick around the sack, which they pull up as the rick advances in height; and it is pulled out of the top when the rick is finished. Thus a tunnel is left in the middle of the hay, which admits a circulation of air, and prevents the heat which might otherwise occasion its destruction.

DIRECTIONS.

For preserving apples through the winter—from Dean's New-England Farmer.

"The secret of preserving apples through the winter, in a sound state, is of no small importance. Some say, that shutting them up in a tight cask is an effectual method, and it seems probable; for they soon rot in open air. But an easier method, and what has recommended itself to me by the experience of several years, is as follow: I gather them about noon, at the full of the moon, in the latter part of September, or beginning of October. Then spread them in a chamber or garret, where they lie till about the last of November. Then remove them into casks, or boxes in the cellar, out of the way of the frost; but I prefer a cool part of the cellar. With this management I find I can keep them till the last of May, so well that not one in fifty will rot."

October 25.

HONORARY MEDAL.

On the 24th of March, 1800, congress voted to commodore Truxton a GOLD MEDAL, as a mark of their sense of his gallantry, and the bravery of the American TARS, under his command, in supporting the honour of the American flag. The particular action that occasioned this honourable testimony of national respect, was his engagement in the Constellation of thirty-eight guns, with the French directorial of war, La Vengeance of fifty-four guns.

We are happy to find, that every attention has been exerted to honour this vote of congress, and the ablest artists in our country employed to carry it into effect. The work was some time since completed, and the medal presented in a very handsome manner by the president to commodore Truxton.

Owing to an accident in the mint very few impressions were struck; of course, these few will be objects of demand at a future day. We have seen an impression, and have heard the opinion of a person expressed on whose judgment we can place confidence. According to this information we consider it superior to any thing of the kind previously executed in this country. We shall not be singular in considering it honourable to our nation thus to distinguish the brave efforts of its citizens.

One side of the medal is an excellent likeness of the commodore—

THE INSCRIPTION

*PATRIÆ PATRES FILIO DIGNO.

AND BENEATH

THOMAS TRUXTON.

On the reverse is a representation of the action, with an inscription, nearly in the words of Mr. Randolph, in the debate that preceded the vote of congress.

UNITED STATES FRIGATE CONSTELLATION, OF THIRTY-EIGHT GUNS,
PURSUES, ATTACKS AND VANQUISHES
THE FRENCH SHIP LA VENGEANCE, OF FIFTY-FOUR GUNS,
1st MARCH, 1800.
AND BENEATH,
BY VOTE OF CONGRESS,
TO THOMAS TRUXTON,
MARCH 24th, 1802.

The design for the medal and the likeness were by Mr. Archibald Robertson, of this city, and the die was engraved by Mr. Scott, of the mint, Philadelphia. [N. Y. Morn. Chronicle.]

* The fathers of the country to a faithful son.

The brig Washington, arrived yesterday, left Nantes the 7th of September. We are informed verbally, that Buonaparte, is fast losing his popularity in France, in consequence of his having caused himself to be elected first consul for life. Murmurs of discontent seem generally to prevail throughout that country; and in proportion as Buonaparte loses the esteem of the sovereign people, Moreau, his rival, rises in their estimation. Something is brewing in that ill-fated republic, that bodes no good.

Annapolis, October 28.

On Tuesday the 12th instant, a jockey club purse of 300 dollars was run for, over Govin's-town course; four mile heats, taken by Mr. Duckett's Democrat, beating general Ridgely's Hamlet, and Mr. Oden's Federal Filly.

JOHN JOHNSON.

Baltimore, October 23, 1802.

Eighty Dollars Reward,

FOR apprehending and securing two young negro men in gaol, DAVY and SAM. Davy is about twenty-three or twenty-four years old, rather of a yellowish complexion, five feet six or seven inches high, and well made; had on when he made his escape, an old felt hat, and a drab coloured short jacket and trowsers. Sam is about twenty-five or twenty-six years of age, of a dark complexion, and upwards of five feet high, very stout made, and had on a felt hat, nearly new, a short round blue jacket, and a pair of new tickienburg trousers, fringed at the bottom. These negroes made their escape in the month of May last, and very likely they have changed their cloathing. Davy has been seen frequently on gen. Stone's farm, at Sassney, by several persons in that neighbourhood, not long since, and Sam is said to resort a negro quarter of Mr. Brice Worthington's, where his father lives, and at other times at Mr. John Chew Thomas's, where he formerly had a wife. Whoever takes up and secures them in gaol, so that I get them again, shall receive the above reward, or FORTY DOLLARS for either of them, paid by me, the subscriber.

STEPHEN BEARD, Jun.

In CHANCERY, October 16, 1802.

Joseph Burch, and others, vs.

Samuel Austin, and Anna his wife, and others, heirs of Naylor Davis,

THE object of the bill in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Naylor Davis, deceased, for the payment of his debts remaining unpaid from his personal estate; the bill states, that Samuel Austin, and Ann his wife, which Ann is one of Naylor's heirs, reside out of Maryland; it is therefore, on the complainants motion, adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three weeks successively, in the Maryland Gazette, before the thirteenth day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendants of this their application, and of the substance and object of the bill, and may warn them to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, before the tenth day of March next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,

Reg. Cur. Can.

NOTICE.

HAVING laboured many years to extricate myself from debts, originating in security-ship, and having conveyed all my estate to trustees for the benefit of all my creditors, notwithstanding which I am so unreasonably pressed and harrassed by executions, that I am driven to the necessity of applying to the next general assembly of Maryland for a law to release me from debts which I am not otherwise able to pay, having no right to the disposal of that property.

RINALDO JOHNSON.

October 19, 1802.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber intends to petition the legislature, at the ensuing session, for a law authorising her to build a bridge across the Susquehanna Canal, to enable her to pass from one part of her farm to the other.
